"Volunteering is one of the best things someone can experience and it is so rewarding to help others. Well without volunteers our CJ's Not-For-Profit SKATEPARK and Foundation would not be in business and we're always looking for good volunteers to get involved."
Jay Mandarin President & Founder CJ's SKATEPARK

We are very fortunate we get to work with so many different charities and so many types of individuals with different challenges and who learn differently. So please if you're interested read the following and write below anything that you can share about yourself and why you want to volunteer at CJ's.

List why you'd like to be a volunteer or work at CJ's, and any work experience you may have with children or youth. Include any babysitting services or working with younger siblings or friends of the family. List any other organizations you might have volunteered at or any clubs you may have joined or been involved with such as sports organization, Scouts, Sea Scouts, Girl Scouts or any other organizations that foster team building and helping others. List anything else you can think of that will help make you stand out so that we can get a good understanding and then we'll reach back out to you

As we are a Not-For-Profit, you can receive your volunteer hours for high school while volunteering at CJ's!
 Please send that to Jay@CJsSkatepark.com
